GUIDELINES AND EXPECTATIONS

Authorities & Limitations
You are required to deliver your coaching schedule as agreed with your line manager. The majority of your coaching timetable is planned in advance however you may need to respond to unforeseen problems. This may require a decision to be taken to cancel classes, arrange for alternative cover, or the redistribution of coaches on shift. Lesson delivery should meet the requirements of Edinburgh Leisure standards i.e. you follow pre-planned scheme of work. You must ensure that participants achieve each ability class criteria; you are expected to use your professional skill and knowledge to help them achieve this. You will be responsible for any Level 1 coach, volunteer or assistant working with you during each lesson, and may be responsible for their utilisation throughout the duration of their shift.

Communication & Representing The Organisation

You will be required to teach a number of people of differing abilities, stages and ages. Working directly with both customers and colleagues you should be friendly, welcoming and helpful in your manner. You should be able to adapt your communication style to ensure you are easily understood.

You will respect the needs and aspirations of each participant through the creation of a safe, fun and nurturing environment for the children to learn and reach their full potential in. You will need to adopt a variety of communication methods when interacting with participants, be it through sign language, body language, singing and use of visual aids and props.

You should make recommendations when to progress participants through the programme and engage in regular feedback to participants and parents. Giving feedback can be challenging sometimes therefore a sensitive and diplomatic approach is required. You are required to keep accurate written records of your classes, compiling class registers and individual performance notes.

You should at all times communicate openly with your venue management team to ensure information is shared in a timely manner and deliver great customer service.

Working in your team you should plan and prepare a scheme of work for the lesson term. You are expected to contribute your ideas and suggestions to maximise progression, consistency and customer experience for each term.

Safeguarding Our Customers

- Take an active role in the safety of yourself, your team, the facility and customers. Don't interfere with any equipment designed to preserve life. Take action to fix or report any potential hazard.
- When coaching you must remain safe at all times:
 - Position yourself while coaching so that you can see all participants in your class throughout the lesson.
 - You must never leave the class during the delivery of a lesson
 - Equipment used for the class must be set up correctly, inspected, used correctly and remain tidy at all times to prevent trip hazards.
 - When working with an assistant you should ensure they are working safely whilst assisting the lessons.
- You are expected to understand and fulfil your role (following training) in:
 - Scottish Gymnastics Code of Conduct
 - Edinburgh Leisure's Health and Safety policy
 - Edinburgh Leisure's Child Protection policy
 - Your venue's Emergency Action Plan (EAP)
 - Your venue's Normal Operating Plan (NOP)
- Ensure that the venue and your area of work clean, tidy and presentable
- Supervise customer use of safety critical areas, such as behaviour while using equipment

Problem Solving
It is important for every Gymnastics Coach to keep up to date of any changes to gymnastics rules and/or best practices to benefit your own development. You are also expected to mentor and develop the Level 1 coaches who work with you. You must attend ongoing CPD as agreed by your line manager. Using your skills and knowledge you need to continually assess the skills and abilities of participants to ensure that they are in the appropriate class and are progressing. You will assess participants on the Scottish Gymnastics awards as required. You will have to respond to, and deal with issues that may occur. You are expected to resolve these matters wherever possible but have access to your line manager for escalation or further advice.

Impact On Organization
Our gymnastics coaches deliver quality coaching that enable participants to progress in gymnastics and remain in the programme. The gymnastics programme is growing, its success is reliant on high quality, safe teaching standards. As a coach you are the contact for participants and invaluable in providing a first class customer experience.

JOB DEMANDS
Physical	The majority of time will be spent on your feet in a sport hall environment so a reasonable level of fitness is required. You will also be required on occasion to demonstrate the correct technique and use of equipment. You must also participate in regular staff training to ensure essential skills are maintained, such as moving and handling equipment and CPR
Mental	You are expected to meet and greet all customers to the venue with enthusiasm. You should remain alert at all times to be able to respond quickly and effectively whilst coaching. You should be aware of time to ensure classes do not overrun.
Emotional	You will be required to respond to any emergency situation appropriately whilst on duty. On occasion you will be required to deal with unwilling, upset participants who may lack confidence and adapt your approach to reassure and encourage them to join in.
Environmental	Our venues are busy places, and can often be noisy.
